Hi, my name is Rafael Salamanca, Jr. and I'm running to be your voice on the New York City Council.

I've lived in the Bronx my whole life, and when I was young I saw how parents sacrificed so their kids could have a better life right here in New York City.

That's why I've dedicated my career to giving back to the community - because it has given so much to me - and I'm running for City Council so we can provide OUR children with a Bronx that has stronger schools, truly affordable housing, and good-paying jobs."

For many years now, I've worked to help improve the quality of life for Bronx families, including as a member of my Community Board for over ten years, where I've worked on many issues.

Perhaps most importantly, I've worked to keep our streets safe. After witnessing the crime, violence and prostitution related to adult clubs in the Hunts Point community, I helped lead the community board, the NYPD and local elected officials to shut down all 5 establishments, and we were successful.

But while I'm proud of my career so far, there is still much work to do, and with the Bronx at a crossroads, we need someone at City Hall who's ready to get to work.

That's why I'm asking you to vote for me, Rafael Salamanca, Jr. for City Council on Tuesday, February 23rd.

Together, let's move the Bronx forward! Thank you.
