FINAL BOARD DETERMINATION

The New York City Campaign Finance Board (“Board” or “CFB”), at a meeting held on March 13, 2014, made the following final determination:

Violations and Penalties

The Board determined that the Small Business Coalition, Inc., and its Authorized Representative, John Eddy (collectively, the “Spender”), violated the New York City Charter (“Charter”) and Board Rules and are jointly and severally liable for paying $260 in penalties as follows:

A penalty of $260 for failure to provide employment information for contributors. See Board Rule 13-02(d). On November 22, 2013, the Spender submitted a disclosure statement via the Independent Expenditure Disclosure System (“IEDS”) that reported twelve contributions, ten of which were from individuals. No employment information was provided for any of these individuals. To date, the Spender has reported 39 contributors, but reported employment information for only 29. The Board assessed a penalty of $10 per percentage of the number of contributors for whom no employer was reported.

The Board determined that the amount due is $260. On February 18, 2014, the Spender sent a payment of $260 to the Board, satisfying its penalty obligation.

You may challenge this final determination, within four months, in the New York State

Supreme Court pursuant to Article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules.
